

Generation X in figures

Only 1 in 3 US Generation Xers think they will reach their long-term financial goals¹

Key concerns for Generation X

Looming retirement needs

Home ownership

Debt

Day to day money management

40%

of US Generation Xers do not have a strategy for retirement.²

$30,334

is the level of non-mortgage debt held by the typical US Generation Xer, according to research from credit reporting agency Experian.³

41%

of US Generation Xers feel they need to save more for the future than they are doing today.⁴

51%

of UK Generation Xers are too busy worrying about other costs to think about retirement.⁵

47%

of UK Generation Xers plan to use property to fund their retirement.⁶

23%

of this group have yet to buy a property.⁷

¹ Source FICO as at July 2017. Survey data was gathered from 1,000 U.S. survey respondents.

² TransAmerica Center Study 2016.

³ Experian. State of credit: 2017. 11 2018.

⁴ Source FICO as at July 2017. Survey data was gathered from 1,000 U.S. survey respondents.

⁵ The Pensions and Lifetime Savings Association (PLSA). 12 April 2017.

⁶ Ibid.

⁷ Ibid.